ABOUT LOWANA:

Lowana is a project of AEPL (Association for Educational Projects Ltd), a non-profit, volunteer-based study centre dedicated to the formation of girls and women in character, confidence, and service. Rooted in a Christian ethos and delivered in close partnership with families, Lowana provides programs and mentoring that support the personal, professional, and spiritual formation of each individual. Through programs, leadership opportunities, community service, and personalised mentoring, Lowana helps girls and women reach their full potential so they can contribute meaningfully to their families, communities, and society.
